Evening Sales Opportunity:

$30.00

We do not have vendors at the Fall Retreat, so this provides an opportunity for All Participants to bring items from their stash that they no longer plan to use, OR other items you make: jewelry, handmade books, handspun yarn-not everyone at the retreat is a spinner (yet), photographs, hats, project bags, shawl pins, homemade jam, etc. We'll set up tables on Friday evening for display and sales. Start looking through your stash and craft room and start planning what you'll bring!!

Limited Edition 2016 Fall Retreat Bag:

$45.00

A Limited number of Fall 2016 Carolina Fiber Frolic Retreat Project Bags are available for pre-order. A photo of the bag can be seen on the website. The fall 2016 retreat bags are a very generous size suitable for a sweater, a large shawl project, or several smaller WIPs so you have project options when you're out and about. The primary fabric is a decorator weight woven leaf design with a warm orange background. The leaves will vary between bags, but all bags will have multiple different leaves on it. The base & handle (on a swivel clasp) are a brown leather-looking great easy care fabric, the lining is a heavy natural canvas fabric, and each bag will have a two compartment pocket for stashing stitch markers, tape measure, yarn labels, a pencil, your glasses, etc. They have orange zippers, and a special Carolina Fiber Frolic Fall 2016 tag. If you would like to have one waiting for you when you arrive, please include that on your registration form.
